C. OBJECTIVES, FUNCTIONS & SCOPE OF KISAN KHIDMAT GHARS

The Holistic Agriculture Development Program is a 5-year transformative initiative aimed at revolutionizing agricultural practices in the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir. Under this visionary program, the establishment of Kisan Khidmat Ghars (KKGs) represents a crucial step towards enhancing agricultural outreach and providing comprehensive services to farmers at the grass roots level.

The KKGs, as part of the Innovative Extension Project, serve as one-stop service centers strategically located at the panchayat level. These centers act as focal points for the dissemination of information, advisory services, and the delivery of agricultural schemes directly to farmers' doorsteps. The primary goal is to bridge the gap between farmers and essential resources, ensuring timely access to quality inputs, information, and support.

a. Objectives

In order to address the significant gap in the extension worker-to-farmer contact ratio in Jammu & Kashmir, it is proposed to establish 2000 "Kisan Khidmat Ghars" at the panchayat level. These Ghars will act as ground-level convergence points for all services under the agriculture and allied sector. The key objectives include:

- i. Serving as a one-stop service center for agriculture and allied services at the panchayat level.
- ii. Extending all schemes and services by the agriculture and allied department to the farmer's doorstep.
- iii. Delivering ICT-driven dissemination of relevant advisory and information.
- iv. Ensuring the timely availability of quality agri-inputs to farmers at predefined prices.
- v. Creating 2000 Krishi Udyamis (KUs) by providing self-employment opportunities to youth across the UT.
- vi. Each Kisan Khidmat Ghar is envisaged to have "multi-functional kiosks installed with a software interface, supporting KUs in delivering multiple services and acting as intermediaries between the government and the farmers. Similar to the common service centers (CSCs) model, KUs will charge nominal fees for all services provided at Kisan Khidmat Ghars.

b. Functions of Kisan Khidmat Ghars:

Key services to be delivered by Kisan Khidmat Ghar include:

- i. Farmer Registration for Schemes & Services: Application for HADP & CSS schemes, Crop Insurance, etc., and creation of a unique farmer profile with necessary documentation and specific information during registration.

- ii. Sale of Farm Inputs: Sale of seeds, fertilizers, pesticides, and other farm inputs at the panchayat level through market linkages provided by APD.
 - iii. Booking of Farm Machinery: Booking of farm machinery from the nearest custom hiring centre (CHCs) and KVKs.
 - iv. Sale of Produce: Support to farmers in selling produce on e-marketing portals like e-NAM.

- v. Static & Dynamic Advisory: Integration of static guides on crop management, disease management, post-harvest management, etc., developed by SKUAST, and real-time updates on weather forecasting, agro-advisory, market intelligence, etc.
 - vi. Consultation with Experts from KVK: Real-time consultation with experts from KVKs on different areas of expertise through video conferencing.
 - vii. Linkages to Line Departments: Integration of an information directory and contact mechanism for all relevant service providers under the agriculture and allied sectors, including AHELP workers, Krishi Mitras, FPOs in the region, ambulance services, veterinarians, etc.
 - viii. Delivery of Decision Support System: Providing personalized insights to registered farmers on optimizing crop planning, resource allocation, crop management, and operational processes through a decision support system.
 - ix. Farmer Education Programs: Conducting educational programs for farmers to enhance their knowledge and skills in modern agricultural practices, sustainable farming, and the adoption of advanced technologies.
 - x. Soil Health Management: Implementing soil health management practices, including soil testing services, nutrient management, and recommendations for improving soil fertility.
 - xi. Integrated Pest Management (IPM): Offering guidance on integrated pest management strategies, pest identification, and eco-friendly approaches to pest control.
 - xii. Livestock Services: Providing information and support for livestock management, veterinary services, and animal husbandry practices.
 - xiii. Awareness Campaigns: Initiating and conducting awareness campaigns on various government initiatives, agricultural best practices, and schemes.
 - xiv. Government Scheme Facilitation: Assisting farmers in understanding and availing themselves of various government schemes, subsidies, and financial assistance programs.
 - xv. Data Collection and Reporting: Collecting essential data related to agriculture, farmer profiles, and service utilization, and submitting regular reports to the Agriculture Production Department.
 - xvi. Collaborative Initiatives: Facilitating collaborative initiatives with local agricultural research institutions, universities, and others take holders to bring cutting-edge technologies and practices to the grassroots level.
 - xvii. Continuous Learning: Keeping abreast of advancements in agriculture, attending training programs, and continuously upgrading knowledge to provide up-to-date information and services.
 - xviii. Community Engagement: Actively engaging with the local community, encouraging participation in agricultural activities and fostering a sense of community responsibility.
- 72

- xix. Conflict Resolution: Resolving any conflicts or issues that may arise within the community related to agricultural practices or the functioning of Kisan Khidmat Ghars.

C. Scope of Kisan Khidmat Ghars:

The scope of Kisan Khidmat Ghars extends to providing comprehensive support and services to farmers, promoting sustainable agricultural practices, and contributing to the overall development of the agricultural sector in the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir. The program aims to create a robust and farmer-friendly ecosystem that empowers both farmers and Krishi Udyamis, ensuring the prosperity and growth of the agriculture community.
